

YOUNG & SUSSER, P.C.

COMPLEX BUSINESS LITIGATION

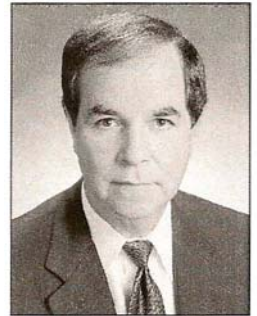

Is pleased to announce that

Rodger D. Young

Has been named Practitioner of the Year at the annual Salute to Justice Event

The inaugural award was presented to Mr. Young at the Republican Committee of Oakland County's 21st Annual Salute to Justice event by RCOC Chairman Paul Welday.

"Mr. Young was chosen for his excellent standing and reputation in the legal community, his innovative approach to the practice of law and his litigation success. He is a nationally recognized trial lawyer who has tried cases throughout the United States and has won an impressive 42 of 45 jury trials," Welday said. His areas of expertise include complex litigation including patent, antitrust, high technology, telecommunications, trade secret, automotive, shareholder/partner disputes and construction matters.

Mr. Young was appointed to the State Bar of Michigan's Board of Commissioners by the Michigan Supreme Court in 2003. In 1978, he was admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the First, Second, Sixth and Ninth and Federal Circuits. He is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Oakland County Bar Association. Mr. Young was also inducted as a member of the American College of Trial Lawyers.
