

Rodger D. Young

Rodger D. Young is the founding partner of the law firm of Young & Susser, P.C., which has offices in Southfield, Mich., and in New York City. Young has tried large and high-profile commercial cases nationwide, and was elected to the American College of Trial Lawyers. In addition to co-authoring a number of articles, Young co-authored Civil Trials and Evidence, published by West Group, and has lectured throughout the United States. He served as vice chairman of the Michigan Transportation Commission, and was named chairman of the Bush administration's Federal Judge and U.S. Attorney Qualification Committee. President Bush appointed him to serve as a U.S. delegate to the United Nations in 2007. He served for one year with George Pataki, the former three-term governor of New York. He was named in the 2007, 2008, and 2009 editions of The Best Lawyers in America. For more information, see www.youngpc.com.

Rodger D. Young
Young & Susser, P.C.

26200 American Drive, Suite 305, Southfield, MI 48034

Phone: 248.353.8620 • Fax: 248.353.6559 • Email: young@youngpc.com • Website: www.youngpc.com